Excerpt: . . . for Him they constantly sighed; Him they regarded in all their sacrifices, which were, indeed, so many figures of Him, and of His death. All these figures were to have an end when Christ Himself, the very Truth, came in person into the world, and offered Himself upon the Cross, a sacrifice for the sins of the world. But still His death and passion is to be the perpetual object of the devotion of all His children and servants, even to the end of the world; not now, as prefigured, in shadows and types, but as commemorated and celebrated in the Eucharistic Sacrifice and Sacrament, containing and exhibiting verily and indeed (that is, in very truth,) our Great High Priest and Victim, Jesus Christ. For the ancient figures are now passed, and the truth has succeeded in their place: and that same fountain...
