Excerpt: . . . ocracy, I know at this juncture that a number of our colleagues are not prepared to sign onto such a dramatic change in our policy. Rather, this bill creates specific exceptions to the embargo that will among other things allow American farmers and businesses to sell food, medicine and agricultural equipment to Cuba without the burden of securing annual licenses, and will allow our farmers and businesses to use American banks and American financing to conduct these sales. Both of these changes along with the lifting of shipping restrictions are designed to allow sales to move forward in a way that is less burdensome to American farmers and industry. We are fortunate to have with us this afternoon the former Assistant Secretary of State for the Western Hemisphere, Bernie Aronson, to share with the committee his views on the legislation and on the U. S. -Cuba policy in general. Bernie Aronson is extremely well-qualified to do so not only because of his previous government service but also because since 1998 he has been...
