Bantam. 1 Paperback(s), 2009. soft. Book Condition: New. From the author of Company of Liars (hailed as "a jewel of a medieval mystery" by the NYTBR), this historical novel portrays a 14th-century village and a group of courageous women within it, set on a collision course in a storm of secrets, lust, and rage. The tiny English town of Ulewic teeters between the powerful Owl Masters, who wish to bring back pagan worship, and the Christian sisters of the beguinage, who seek only to be left alone to worship in their sanctuary. But the owlmen find an unlikely ally in the parish priest, who wishes to persecute these women as heretics in order to cover his own sins. 509.
